For the Fallen

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old

Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn

At the going down of the sun and in the morning

We will remember them

The Poppy

Nature created a flower
With petals of brilliant red Who'd have thought such a beautiful flower
Would be used to remember the dead

For when all the guns have stopped firing
And there's only the mud and the rain God sends down his little red flowers
To cover the lads who remain

So remember every November
When we hold our remembrance day
Of the lads who lie beneath the poppies
And the price they had to pay

I knew a simple soldier boy Who grinned at life in empty joy,
Slept soundly through the lonesome dark,
And whistled early with the lark.

In winter trenches, cowed and glum,
With crumps and lice and lack of rum,
He put a bullet through his brain.
No one spoke of him again.

You smug-faced crowds with kindling eye Who cheer when soldier lads march by,
Sneak home and pray you'll never know
The hell where youth and laughter go.

Neanderthal
schedel met grottekeningen.

prehistorie en evolutie hebben mij altijd al geïnteresseerd. Het verhaal van de mens is helemaal bijzonder. Alleen al als je je voorstelt dat een van die grote tekeningen van je voorvader zou kunnen zijn. Dan komt het verleden meteen dichterbij.

Cro-Magnon schedel met maori tattoeage.
De schedel is ± 20.000 jaar ~~oud~~ en
is op sommige punten gebroken en gescheurd.
Sporen van de tijd.
De vervreemding in de vorm van tattoeages, een kenmerk van onze tijd, laat het heden en het verleden Samen komen.
